Best Time Trips Policy

*Trips are arranged to accomodate all ages. However, these
"Best Time Trips" policies must be considered.*

1. Trip coordinators need assurance from any prospective participant undergoing any course of medical treatment that the medical authority has concurred with the proposed trip arrangements, and that no calls to medical facilities while away from home are anticipated.
2. Prospective participant must agree to accept personal responsibility for accessibility to, and the use of, any medical equipment and/or medicine prior to departure. Participants will be asked if this has been attended to.
3. All medical emergencies that occur on a trip will be handled as carefully and compassionately as possible. All participants are required to fill out a liability/Medical Release Form before going on a trip. This form must be filled out yearly.)
4. Each trip is "tailor-made" to suit group needs and individual requests regarding health and other matters will be considered in the light of group convenience and expectations.
5. For the convenience of the group, departure times will be strictly adhered to.
6. Deposits and refunds are governed by each individual trip as specified in the printed itinerary.

Please direct any questions or suggestions to either Dwight Story (475-6280) or Kathy Barba Pierce (812-4815).

If you need to cancel your reservation, please call Dwight Story (475-6280) as soon as possible.

Anyone interested in any of these trips is encouraged to contact Dwight Story (475-6280) or Kathy Barba Pierce at the church office (812-4815). A deposit of $30 is needed on overnight trips 45 days prior to departure date. Full payment is required 10 days before departure on all trips. Please make your checks payable to Wesley Memorial and mail to: Dwight Story, 304 Shuler Circle, Thomasville, NC 27360.
