Wesley Memorial Labyrinth Project

Thanks to the generosity of Dr. Nido and Mariana Qubein, Wesley Memorial will soon have a beautiful, outdoor labyrinth for our members, friends and neighbors to experience.

A labyrinth offers a delightful way to enter into prayer intentionally as a journey, to slow down and prepare our hearts in Advent for the coming of Christ. One way to journey is as follows:

Releasing – As you enter the labyrinth in prayer, express your praise and thanksgiving to God, releasing unto God all the cares and burdens that are weighing you down

Receiving – In the center, be still and know He is God. Take time to listen for the Holy Spirit speaking the Word of God into your life, filling you with faith and hope Renewed – Go out from this place of receiving, exiting out of the labyrinth into the world, renewed to proclaim God’s goodness and love.

Being an Attractive Church

Are we a church that attracts people? The answer to this question is dependent upon how invitational you are. Are you frequently inviting people to experience the life of our church family? Have you recently invited anyone to experience the life of our congregation?

Are you inviting people to attend our Sunday morning services, our special services (Advent services, Christmas Eve Lovefeast and Communion services), our special classes, and our special fellowship times? Are you inviting people to your small groups, your Sunday School Classes, your women’s group, your men’s group, your children’s group, your student group, your choir? Are you inviting people to help your Ministry Teams with its work? Are you finding new spaces for new faces? Are you constantly thinking of ways that you can incorporate new members into the life of our church family? Being invitational is something that we all must “keep on our radar.”

We need to do this for many reasons. It is essential to the future vitality of our congregation. New people bring new energy and new gifts to our ministry and mission. Our individual lives are enriched by the people that we invite into our lives. People need Christian community. People need Jesus. People need to experience the abundant life of the Spirit. Through the work of the Church in the world, people find purpose and meaning. We have much to offer at Wesley Memorial Church, so we must be intentional about reaching out to others.

For Wesley Memorial Church to thrive spiritually, we must be both a missional and an invitational church family. Gone are the days when people just socially, culturally, and spiritually feel drawn to church. We’ve got to invite, bring, and receive new people into our fellowship. Your clergy and your staff can lead and equip you, but you’ve got to find the joy of accepting responsibility for the health of your church. It takes focused work, but it is worth the effort. It is a basic Christian conviction that we all belong to each other and we are responsible for each other. “If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together. Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it” (1 Corinthians 12:26, 27).

"A prison cell, in which one waits, hopes - and is completely dependent on the fact that the door of freedom has to be opened from the outside, this is not a bad picture of Advent." - Dietrich Bonhoeffer

I came across this quote many years ago and it has always stuck with me in regards to Advent and Christmas.

For one, the quote acknowledges the dilemma of the human race. We are a people in need of rescue. It is a great strength to admit of our weakness and need for help.

God has seen our dilemma, and he has responded. More than just respond, God himself became a man, the only perfect life that has ever been lived. Majesty borne into the mundane. Royal splendor borne into the filth of a trough, a birth more than likely encapsulated within a dark and dusty cave.

God became flesh for you, to bear your sins, to set you free, to bring you home. God sees the debt you owe, a debt that you cannot repay. In the place of your debt, the lamb of God has given his life.

It can be hard to receive a gift that is large, extravagant and gracious. It requires a letting down of your defenses and an admission of humility. Surrender can be unsettling and perhaps even counterintuitive, but that doesn't mean it's wrong.

Jesus has opened the prison door. For you.

It is finished. You are forgiven. Immanuel, God with us, has come. God in His grace has acted on your behalf. The only question left is, "How will you respond?"

Jesus has opened the prison door for you this Advent season.

Will you step through?

Attention Leaders of Journey Groups, Unity Groups, and Sunday School Classes

This fall we have a large group of new church members and the next step is help get them connected into vital, godly relationships. Every church wants to grow, but in order to grow we must increase our capacity to receive new members. If your group or class is open to receiving new guests, please contact Clark at cchilton@wesleymemorial.org and help us increase our capacity!

Advent Journey

“And Mary said: My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior...”

Luke 1:46-47

I LOVE Christmas! Vibrant red and forest green colors surrounding everything, banister railings covered in greenery and twinkling lights, carols playing everywhere I go. This time of year seems like it is sprinkled with celebration. While Christmas decorations and holiday festivities already surround us, we have not yet actually arrived at Christmas.

December 1st, 2019 marks the beginning of Advent, the “New Years Day” of the Christian calendar. We begin the Christian year with Advent, as a way through which we begin with the end in mind. Advent is different than Christmas, for Advent is actually a celebration and looking toward the second coming of the King! The very meaning of the word “Advent” is “the coming or arrival”. Advent is to be a pilgrimage journey preparing our hearts and lives for the second coming of Christ, a time of expectation.

Slow down during this time of Advent and reflect intentionally about preparing your heart to receive the coming of Christ. Are you rushing around during this season in a flurry of activity, or are you waiting prayerfully - listening to the promptings of the Holy Spirit in your life, anticipating the arrival of the King of kings?

I am excited this Advent season to be watching the development of our new Labyrinth here at Wesley Memorial UMC (see front page)!

I invite you to join me on a pilgrimage this advent season through Scripture to worship the coming of the King. To the right is a listing of suggested readings leading up to birth of Jesus in the manger culminating on Christmas Day. I invite you to read these with new eyes this Advent season...keeping the end in mind even as you read of the beginning - anticipating His second coming. For this is the hope of the world. May your heart be filled with joy today as you await the coming of our King!

Merry Christmas and Thank You to the church staff from the children!

Children are bringing Christmas treats of fruits, nuts, candies & cookies to combine into a gift bag for each Wesley Memorial church staff member. Our students will assemble around the Children's Tree in the Dining Hall to "surprise" church staff members on December 18 and 19 with their special gift. We want to express thanks for the blessing of our church staff's love and support of Wesley Memorial School.

Our Kindergarten Christmas Program

Thanksgiving Food Collection for Fairview Elementary

Come and share the music of the Advent and Christmas Seasons at the 11:00 am services with the choirs of Wesley Memorial. The JuBELLation Choir will ring for worship on December 1st. This group of young ringers does amazing work in a small amount of rehearsal time. Mary Frances Collins, Maddie Doak, Charley Doak, Arden Yates, Hannah Reeves and Wesley Singer Steven Davis make up this exceptional group with the help of Carolyn Shaw, Claire Wilson and sometimes sub Patty McLarty.

On December 8 the Chancel Choir with orchestra and organ will lead a Lessons and Carols service. Join us as readers, congregational carols and choir anthems relate once again the beautiful and meaningful Advent and Christmas stories.

Our children ages K-5th grade will sing the introit on December 15 for the 11:00 am service and then participate in the Children's Nativity. This worship service is always a highlight of the Advent season.

Chancel Bells will ring an engaging arrangement of "Watchman, Tell Us Of The Night" on Sunday, December 22 and two Christmas Carols at the 5:00 pm Lovefeast on Christmas Eve. This year's Lovefeast will include few anthems and many carols to be sung by the congregation. Join us for a most memorable holiday season. The Christmas Eve Candlelight Communion service will feature Christmas music played by a string quartet

If you wish to sponsor an instrument for one of the services above, or choose an anthem from a list compiled by the director of music, in memory or in honor of a loved one, friend, teacher, etc., contact Anne Carroll.
