In the midst of these times of physical isolation, may we draw near together in unity as we worship God in spirit and in truth. We invite you to call a friend and enter into a time of growing in faith as you pray, worship, and study the Scripture below together.

Morning Prayer

Savior, we worship Your holy name. In the midst of the trials that we are facing, we look to You. You are our hope. You are our joy. You are our peace. You are the One who redeems, who saves, who delivers and heals. Help us to rest in who You are. In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Scripture Reading – Isaiah 43:1-3a (NRSV)

43 But now thus says the LORD,
he who created you, O Jacob,
he who formed you, O Israel:
Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
I have called you by name, you are mine.
² When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you;
when you walk through fire you shall not be burned,
and the flame shall not consume you.
³ For I am the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.
